“Excellent protection and comfort on the jobsite are top of mind for professionals,” says Shantanu Deshpande, associate director of product management at Klein Tools. “These carbon fiber hard hats have large adjustable vents to manage air circulation, a feature not found on other carbon fiber hard hats today. The lightweight carbon fiber shell matched with a padded and balanced 6-point suspension provides long-term comfort and fit. Klein’s innovative front and back accessory mounts allow easy attachment of Klein accessories like headlamps, fans, and safety lamps, adding more practical utility. The K12™ Series’ premium design, fit, feel, and finish with a combination of class leading performance and innovative convenience features make this the best-in-class value.”
